

1st Year Master's Students

Grace Dickman

Grace Dickman is from Queens, New York. A Mathematics major at Macalester College in Saint Paul, Minnesota, she played on the women's basketball team for five seasons. During her junior year, Dickman began to mesh her interests in basketball and math by diving into analytics. Dickman wants to pursue a career in collegiate athletics where she is able to grow and support the community surrounding women's sports, as well as optimizing the experience for female student-athletes.

Kerren Kollock

Kerren Kollock is from Stevens Point, Wisconsin area. She obtained her degree from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire with a BBA in Management, with an emphasis in Human Resources, along with a certificate in Leadership Studies. Kerren wishes to blend her passion for leadership and helping people, with the world of college athletics. Her interests is leaning towards Student Athlete Development, but is very excited to learn many new skills throughout this program. In her free time, you will find her kayaking almost every weekend in the summer.

Brett LeClair

Brett LeClair is originally from Sutton, Massachusetts, and a 2018 graduate of the University of Connecticut with a degree in Sport Management and a minor in Business Fundamentals. Brett worked in a variety of roles for UConn Athletics, beginning in equipment services and later transitioning into roles within the operations department. Outside of UConn, Brett served as a facility and event management intern for Holy Cross Athletics, as well as a championship operations intern for the American Athletic Conference. He was a four-year member of the UConn Men's Lacrosse team, serving two years as the club's President. Brett aims to pursue a career in collegiate athletic operations en route to becoming a senior administrator at the Division I level.

Lewis Mickey

Lewis Mickey is from Cedar Falls, Iowa and a graduate of the University of Iowa. His undergraduate degree is in Sport and Recreation Management. During his four years he worked for their Athletic Department. He also worked for teams like the Chicago Blackhawks, Cedar Rapids Kernels, and Iowa Wolves. Lewis' ultimate goal is to work in athletic administration in some capacity. Although he isn't quite sure which area he will focus on, he is eager to figure it out during his two years at UNC.

Gabrielle Nottage

Gabrielle Nottage is a native of Evanston, Illinois. A 2017 graduate of Denison University, Nottage was a four-year student-athlete and senior captain on the women's basketball team, graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in communications and a minor in economics. Before coming to UNC, Nottage was a postgraduate intern for the NCAA for the Division I Women's Basketball Championship. She strives to pursue her career in college athletics, working towards improving the student-athlete and fan experience within either the business or sponsorship fields. Gabrielle enjoys hunting for new podcasts, hanging out with friends and traveling around the world.

Austin Schulte

Austin Schulte is from Athens, Georgia and a graduate from the University of Georgia. He graduated with a double major in Marketing and Sport Management. While at Georgia, Austin spent one year in athletics with promotions and another two years as a marketing and ticket sales representative. He hopes to become an athletic director and is excited to start his collegiate athletic career in marketing. He's excited to spend the next two years in Chapel Hill and explore a new college town!

Saadia Timpton

Saadia Timpton was born in New Orleans, LA and raised in Charlotte, NC. She received a Bachelor's of Arts in Sociology with a minor in Communication Studies from Davidson College. She has dedicated her life thus far to furthering her involvement and understanding of the athletic world through experience and academia. There aren't words to describe how excited and honored she is to pursue her masters as a member of Chapel Hill's Sports Administration program. In 2020, as she enters the work force, she intends to focus her efforts primarily on sports marketing. Go Heels!

Sarah Watson

Sarah Watson is from Lumberton, North Carolina. She attended the University of North Carolina, where she earned a bachelor's degree in Exercise and Sport Science - Sport Administration in 2015. During her time at Carolina, Sarah worked in the athletic department as a Student Office Assistant in the football office. Since graduation, Sarah has worked in an administrative role with UNC Health Care, with the UNC Athletic Event Management staff, and most recently as a Ticket Operations Assistant in the UNC athletic ticket office. In her spare time, Sarah enjoys spending time outdoors (at the beach, if possible), cooking, and exploring new cities. After graduation, Sarah hopes to work with a Division I school in a development or hospitality oriented role where she can utilize her strengths of organization and planning.